

I am deeply concerned about the possible consolidation of news-gathering organizations and advertising outlets into single entities. It's not good for business. I encourage you not to lift the restrictions on cross-ownership of media in a given market. Thank you,

-Chuck Worley